I. INTRODUCTION

Defendants USA CYCLING, INC and LINDA BUFFETTI move to dismiss this action against them on the following grounds. First, pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Rules 4(h)(m) and 12(b)(5), this action was not properly served on USA Cycling, Inc. in the time and manner prescribed for service by this Court. Second, the complaint must be dismissed against USA Cycling as the only cause of action alleged against it, Count Eight of the complaint, is barred by the applicable statute of limitation and otherwise fails to state facts on which relief can be granted.

Defendant Linda Buffetti moves the Court to dismiss this action against her as Count Two of the complaint fails to state facts upon which relief can be granted and Count Eighteen of the 1 complaint is time barred and otherwise fails to state facts on which relief can be granted.

2 II. STATEMENT OF FACTS

3 While running in a business park in Newark, California on June 12, 2004, plaintiff collided
 4 with bicyclists participating in a bicycle race. The bicycle race was organized and promoted by the 5 Freemont Freewheelers Bicycle Club. USA Cycling sanctioned the event. Defendant Linda Buffetti
 6 is employed by USA Cycling as a member service representative for the western region of the 7 United States.

8 On July 15, 2004 a criminal complaint and arrest warrant were issued by Alameda County
 9 authorities charging plaintiff with misdemeanor battery arising from the June 12, 2004 collision.
 10 (Plaintiff's complaint, 2:7-3:14; Exhibit A attached to defendants' Request for Judicial Notice). The 11 criminal charges against plaintiff were dismissed on October 12, 2005. (Exhibit B, RJN).

12 Plaintiff's collision with the bicyclists has resulted in at least four (4) lawsuits by plaintiff,
 13 including, most recently, a suit against the attorney that represented plaintiff in a personal injury
 14 action arising from the collision, Lopes v. Turnage, Alameda County Superior Court, Case No.
 15 HG07356863.

16 III. PROCEDURAL HISTORY

17 On November 2, 2007, plaintiff filed the current litigation in Alameda County Superior
 18 Court. (Exhibit E, RJN). On November 8, 2007 plaintiff filed a First Amended Complaint
 19 (hereinafter "complaint") which contained eighteen (18) causes of action against thirty-three (33)
 20 individuals and entities. The counts alleged against defendants USA Cycling and Linda Buffetti are 21 as follows: Count Two purports to allege a Racketeer Influenced Corrupted Organization (RICO)
 22 claim against Linda Buffetti under 18 USC section 1962(d); Count Eight purports to allege a cause
 23 of action for a civil rights violation pursuant to 42 USC section 1985(3) against USA Cycling; and 24 Count Eighteen purports to allege a malicious prosecution action against Linda Buffetti.

25 On December 7, 2007, the case was removed from the Alameda County Superior Court to 26 the United States District Court, Northern District of California, based upon federal question
 27 jurisdiction. On December 13, 2007, defendant CB Richard Ellis, Inc. filed a motion to dismiss 28 pursuant to Rule 12(b)(6) on the grounds that res judicata and the statute of limitations barred the

1 action. On March 10, 2008, this court granted defendant CB Richard Ellis, Inc.'s motion and 2 dismissed it from this case.

3 On March 28, 2008, this Court entered an order granting a request to continue the case
 4 management conference from April 3, 2008 to May 29, 2008. (Document 26) As part of its 5 March 28, 2008 order, the Court ordered plaintiff to have all defendants properly served in this 6 action no later than April 30, 2008 (Document 26, p.2).

7 On April 15, 2008 plaintiff obtained a summons from the District Court in the names of 8 various defendants including Linda Buffetti and USA Cycling.

9 On April 23, 2008, defendant Linda Buffetti was served with two copies of the summons and 10 plaintiff's first amended complaint at USA Cycling's headquarters in Colorado Springs, Colorado.
 11 Ms. Buffetti is a member services representative for USA Cycling and is paid on an hourly basis.
 12 Ms. Buffetti is not an officer, director, managing agent or general agent of USA Cycling.
 13 Ms. Buffetti is not an agent authorized by appointment or by law to receive service of process on 14 behalf of USA Cycling. (Buffetti Declaration, ¶ 2.)

15 On Friday, May 2, 2008 the Court entered an order to show cause for plaintiff to file proofs
 16 of service of the summons and complaint on the remaining 25 defendants no later than May 16,
 17 2008. (Document 31)

18 IV. ARGUMENT

19 Although, for purposes of a Rule 12(b) motion, the Court should accept the plaintiff's factual
 20 allegations as true, the court need not accept as true conclusory allegations, legal characterizations, 21 unreasonable inferences or unwarranted deductions of fact. Transphase Systems, Inc. v. Southern 22 California Edison Co., 839 F.Supp. 711, 718 (C.D. Cal. 1993), quoting Beliveau v. Caras, 873
 23 F.Supp. 1393, 1395 – 1396. Nor need the court assume that a plaintiff can prove facts different from 24 those it has alleged. Associated Gen. Contractors of Calif. v. California State Council of 25 Carpenters, 459 U.S. 519, 526 (1983). In other words, the Court need not "swallow the plaintiff's 26 invective hook, line and sinker; bald assertions, unsupportable conclusions, periphrastic
 27 circumlocutions and the like need not be credited." Aulson v. Blanchard, 83 F.3d 1, 3 (1st Cir.
 28 1996).

1 A. USA Cycling Has Never Been Properly Served With The Summons And 2 Complaint

3 USA Cycling, Inc. is a Colorado nonprofit corporation. (See the Declaration of Linda 4 Buffetti, ¶ 1) USA Cycling's Articles of Incorporation may be viewed at its website,
 5 www.usacycling.org, and are attached as Exhibit D to defendants' Request for Judicial Notice.

6 Pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Rule 4(h)(1)(b), a corporation may be served 7 with process by delivering a copy of the summons and the complaint to an officer, a managing or 8 general agent, or any other agent authorized by appointment or by law to receive service of process.
 9 Alternatively, pursuant to Rule 4(e)(1), a corporation can be served with a summons and complaint 10 following state law for serving a summons in an action brought in courts of general jurisdiction in 11 the state where the district court is located or where service is made. Under Colorado law, service of 12 a corporation has to be made by delivering a copy of the summons and of the complaint to an officer, 13 director, managing or general agent or an authorized agent for service of process. Colorado Rules of 14 Civil Procedures section 4(e)(5).

15 Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 12(b)(5) allows a motion to dismiss on the grounds that the 16 plaintiff has made insufficient service of process. The Court cannot exercise jurisdiction over a 17 defendant unless the defendant has been served properly under Rule 4. Direct Mail Specialists v.
 18 Eclat Computerized Techs., Inc., 840 F.2d 685, 688 (9th Cir. 1988). Accordingly, a district court has 19 broad discretion to dismiss an action entirely for failure to properly effect service. Jones v.
 20 Automobile Club of Southern California, 26 Fed.Appx. 740, 742 (9th Cir. 2002), citing In re
 21 Sheehan, 253 F.3d 507, 513 (9th Cir. 2001).

22 Under the Rule, neither actual notice nor simply naming the defendant in a complaint
 23 provides personal jurisdiction absent substantial compliance with Rule 4's requirements. Benny v.
 24 Pipes, 799 F.2d 489, 492 (9th Cir. 1986). Service is improper where a person who is not authorized 25 to accept service is served. 3 J. Moore et al., Moore's Federal Practice § 12.33 (3d ed. 2005).
 26 When a defendant files motion to dismiss challenging sufficiency of service of process, plaintiff
 27 bears the burden of proving the adequacy of service. Beatie and Osborn LLP v. Patriot Scientific 28 Corp. (S.D.N.Y. 2006) 431 F.Supp.2d 367.

1 In this action plaintiff purported to serve USA Cycling by serving a copy of the summons
 2 and complaint on defendant Linda Buffetti in Colorado Springs on April 23, 2008. However, as 3 explained in Ms. Buffetti's declaration, she is an hourly employee of USA Cycling. Ms. Buffetti is 4 not an officer, director, managing agent or general agent of USA Cycling. Ms. Buffetti is not an 5 agent authorized by appointment or by law to receive service of process on behalf of USA Cycling.
 6 Accordingly, as USA Cycling has not been properly or timely served with a summons and complaint
 7 in this action, the complaint must be dismissed as to USA Cycling.

8 B. Count Eight Of Plaintiff's Complaint is Barred By The Statute Of Limitations

9 Count Eight of the complaint is also barred by a two year statute of limitations. At the latest,
 10 the plaintiff's cause of action accrued on October 12, 2005, the date of the dismissal of the criminal
 11 action. (RJN, Ex. B). Therefore, the statute of limitations for the plaintiff's section 1985 claim 12 expired, at the latest, on October 12, 2007. This action was not filed until November 2, 2007.

13 Federal court's follow the analogous local statute of limitations for actions brought under 42
 14 U.S.C. § 1985. Wilson v. Garcia, 471 U.S. 261, 266-267 (1985). In Wilson, the Supreme Court held 15 that because 1983 actions are best characterized as actions for injuries to personal rights, district
 16 courts should borrow the state statute of limitations that applies to personal injury actions. Wilson, 17 471 U.S. at 279-80. The Ninth Circuit has since applied the Wilson holding to 1985 claims as well.
 18 McDougal v. County of Imperial, 942 F.2d 668, 674 (9th Cir.1991) (deciding that the California 19 personal injury statute of limitations applies to claims brought pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1985(3)); 20 Taylor v. Regents of Univ. of California, 993 F.2d 710, 711-12 (9th Cir.1993) (holding that personal 21 injury statute of limitations applies to claims brought pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1985). In California, 22 personal injury actions are governed by California Code of Civil Procedure § 335.1, which provides 23 a two-year limitations period.

24 Although state law provides the statute of limitations for claims under section 1985, federal 25 law determines when a civil rights claim accrues. Knox v. Davis, 260 F.3d 1009, 1013 (9th Cir.
 26 2001). "Under federal law, 'a claim accrues when the plaintiff knows or has reason to know of the 27 injury which is the basis of the action.' " Id., quoting Two Rivers v. Lewis, 174 F.3d 987, 992 (9th
 28 Cir.1999). Section 1985 actions accrue "upon the occurrence of the last overt act of the conspirators

1 alleged to have caused damage.” Venegas v. Wagner, 704 F.2d 1144 (9th Cir. 1983).

2 The criminal charges against plaintiff were dismissed on October 12, 2005. (RJN, Ex. B).
 3 No act in furtherance of a conspiracy to prosecute the plaintiff could have occurred after the date of 4 the dismissal. At the very latest, plaintiff had reason to know of his injury by the date the criminal
 5 action had been completely tried. Therefore, the statute of limitations for plaintiff’s 1985 claim
 6 commenced on October 12, 2005 and expired at the latest on October 12, 2005. As this action was 7 not filed until November 2, 2007, Count Eight is barred by the statute of limitations and must be 8 dismissed.

9 C. Count Eight Fails To State Facts On Which Relief May Be Granted

10 Count Eight of the complaint alleges that USA Cycling engaged a conspiracy to deprive the 11 plaintiff of equal protection of the law. A complaint may be dismissed under Rule 12(b)(6) if “it 12 appears beyond a doubt that the plaintiff can prove no set of facts in support of his claim which 13 would entitle him to relief.” Conley v. Gibson, 355 U.S. 41, 45-46 (1957). Dismissal can be based 14 on the lack of a cognizable legal theory or the absence of sufficient facts alleged under a cognizable
 15 legal theory. Robertson v. Dean Witter Reynolds, Inc., 749 F.2d 530, 533 – 534 (9th Cir. 1984). It is 16 beyond doubt that plaintiff cannot prove facts in support of this claim and therefore dismissal is 17 appropriate under F.R.C.P. 12(b)(6).

18 In order to prove a claim for relief under 42 U.S.C. §1985(3), the plaintiff must show:

- 19 (1) a conspiracy;
- 20 (2) for the purposes of depriving a person of the equal protection of the laws;
- 21 (3) an act in furtherance of the conspiracy;
- 22 (4) whereby a person is either injured in his person or property or deprived of a right or privilege of a United States citizen.

24 Mustafa v. Clark County School District, 157 F.3d 1169, 1181 (9th Cir. 1998). See also Griffin v.
 25 Breckenridge, 403 U.S. 88, 102 (1971).

26 In order for a conspiracy to exist, there must be an express or tacit agreement among the co-
 27 conspirators. “The plaintiff must show an agreement or ‘meeting of the minds’ by the defendants”
 28 to violate the plaintiff’s rights. Fonda v. Gray, 707 F.2d 435, 438 (9th Cir. 1983).

1 Count Eight does not state facts sufficient to show an agreement among the alleged
 2 conspirators to engage in a conspiracy. Count 8 contains random statements regarding emails,
 3 “pursued the District Attorney,” and testifying in court. None of these allegations could ever be 4 construed as depriving the plaintiff of the equal protection of the law. This cause of action must be 5 dismissed as to USA Cycling for failure to state a cause of action upon which relief may be granted.

6 D. Count Two Fails To State Facts On Which Relief Can Be Granted

7 Although plaintiff attempts to allege a civil conspiracy in violation of the RICO statute in 8 Court Two of the Complaint, this Count does not begin to satisfy the strict pleading requirements for 9 a fraud cause of action in federal court.

10 The RICO cause of action appears to be based loosely on allegations that a group “utilized 11 email to defraud the insurance company.” Complaint, at Count 2. The Federal Rules of Civil 12 Procedure, Rule 9(b), requires that in “alleging fraud or mistake, a party must state with particularity
 13 the circumstances constituting fraud or mistake.” To properly state a claim for fraud, the plaintiff 14 must allege that the defendant made a false representation, knowledge of the falsity, intent to 15 deceive, the plaintiff’s reliance thereon, and resulting damage. Small v. Frito Companies, 30 Cal.4th 16 167 (2003). Plaintiff only alleges that fraud was committed against an “insurance company” which 17 in some manner supposedly relates to plaintiff being charged with crimes.

18 Furthermore, to establish a conspiracy under section 1962(d), “a plaintiff must prove an 19 agreement involving either a violation of a substantive provision of RICO or a violation of two 20 predicate offenses.” Tonnemacher v. Sasak, 859 F.Supp. 1273, 1277 (D. Ariz. 1994), citing United 21 States v. Tille, 729 F.2d 615, 619 (9th Cir. 1984). “When a plaintiff fails to allege the requisite 22 substantive elements of RICO, however, a conspiracy cause of action cannot stand.” Tonnemacher, 23 859 F.Supp. at 1277, citing Religious Tech. Ctr. v. Wollersheim, 971 F.2d 364, 367 n. 8 (9th 24 Cir.1992). A conspiracy to violate RICO also requires a showing that the defendant was aware of 25 the essential nature and scope of the enterprise and intended to participate in it. Tonnemacher, 859
 26 F.Supp. at 1277 (citations omitted).

27 Plaintiff does not allege a violation of a substantive provision of RICO. In order to state a 28 claim under the RICO statute, the “plaintiff must allege a RICO ‘enterprise’ which is ‘separate and

1 apart from the pattern of activity in which [the enterprise] engages.” Alves v. Player’s Edge, Inc.,
 2 Slip Copy, 2007 WL 1238681 (S.D. Cal.), quoting Chang v. Chen, 80 F.3d 1293, 1297 (9th Cir.
 3 1996). An enterprise is a group that “exists independently from the racketeering activity in which it
 4 engages.” Simon v. Value Behavioral Health, Inc., 208 F.2d 1073, 1083 – 1084 (9th Cir. 2000). The 5 conspiracy itself is not an enterprise. Simon, 208 F.2d at 1083. “In order to sufficiently allege an 6 ‘enterprise’ under 18 U.S.C. § 1962, a complaint must allege an entity with ‘some sort of structure . . .
 7 . for the making of decisions,’ and ‘some mechanisms for controlling and directing the affairs of the 8 group on an ongoing, rather than an ad hoc, basis.’” Simon, 208 F.2d at 1083.

9 Plaintiff’s first amended complaint does not come close to alleging a substantive violation of 10 the RICO statute. Furthermore, plaintiff does not allege a group, structure, decision, control or 11 direction sufficient to plead a cause of action under § 1962(d).

12 Accordingly, as plaintiff simply has not alleged the basis for a claim for civil remedies for a 13 conspiracy to commit fraud in violation of RICO, this claim must be dismissed as to Linda Buffetti.

14 E. Count Eighteen Is Barred By The Statute Of Limitations

15 It is apparent that plaintiff is attempting to allege a cause of action for malicious prosecution
 16 in the eighteenth count of the complaint. The statute of limitations for a malicious prosecution 17 action is two years. Stavropoulos v. Superior Court, 141 Cal.App.4th 190, 193 – 194 (Cal. Ct. App.
 18 2006). A malicious prosecution action accrues when judgment is entered in the trial court. Id. at pp.
 19 334-335. Under California law, a malicious prosecution claim accrues on the date that the trial court 20 enters judgment. Gibbs v. Haight, Dickson, Brown & Bonesteel, 228 Cal. Rptr 398, 402 (Cal. Ct.
 21 App. 1986).

22 The criminal charges against plaintiff were dismissed on October 12, 2005 and the malicious
 23 prosecution cause of action accrued on that date. The statute of limitations expired on October 12, 24 2007. Since over two years passed since the dismissal of the criminal charges against plaintiff and 25 the filing of this action, the statute of limitations bars this claim against Ms. Buffetti.

26 F. The Plaintiff’s Claim for Malicious Prosecution Against Linda Buffetti Should 27 Be Dismissed for Failure to State a Claim Upon Which Relief May Be Granted.

28 As noted, it is apparent that plaintiff is attempting to allege a cause of action for malicious

1 prosecution in the eighteenth count. But this purported claim requires that a defendant direct or 2 commence the alleged malicious prosecution. There are no allegations in this count explaining how 3 Linda Buffetti had anything to do with plaintiff's criminal prosecution.

4 In Count 18 of the complaint, plaintiff alleges that Ms. Buffetti instituted and caused a
 5 malicious prosecution of the plaintiff. But if it "appears beyond a doubt that the plaintiff can prove 6 no set of facts in support of his claim which would entitle him to relief", dismissal is appropriate
 7 under F.R.C.P. 12(b)(6). Conley v. Gibson, 355 U.S. 41, 45-46 (1957).

8 In order to state a claim for malicious prosecution, the plaintiff must allege that:

- 9 (1) the underlying prosecution was commenced by or at the direction of the 10 defendant;
- 11 (2) to a legal determination in plaintiff's favor;
- 12 (3) which was initiated without proper cause; and
- 13 (4) with malice.

14 Sheldon Appel Co. v. Albert & Oliker, 13 Cal.3d 43, 50 (Cal. Sup. Ct. 1974).

15 In plaintiff's previous federal action the court specifically found that the District Attorney 16 had probable cause to file criminal charges against the plaintiff. (June 25, 2007 Memorandum and 17 Order, p. 6., Exhibit C to RJD). There are no allegations or evidence that Ms. Buffetti was in any 18 way connected with the prosecution of the plaintiff. She did not witness his allegedly criminal 19 conduct, she did not speak with the police or the prosecution and she did not testify at trial. Plaintiff
 20 has failed to state, and will never be able to prove, a cause of action for malicious prosecution
 21 against Ms. Buffetti. This claim must be dismissed.

22 V. CONCLUSION

23 Plaintiff's summons and complaint were never properly or timely served on USA Cycling.
 24 The only count alleged against USA Cycling, Count Eight, is barred by the applicable statute of 25 limitations and fails to state facts upon which relief can be granted. As to Linda Buffetti, Count Two 26 of the complaint fails to state facts upon which relief can be granted and Count Eighteen is barred by 27 the application statute of limitations and fails to state facts upon which relief can be granted.

1 Accordingly, plaintiff's complaint should be dismissed as to defendants USA Cycling and Linda 2 Buffetti.
